

Aron Talas Trio

The Aron Talas Trio has formed in 2015, they have released two albums with Talas' original compositions: "Floating Island" (Gats Productions, JP) and "Little Beggar"(BMC Records, HU). The rhythm section consists prominent members of the hungarian jazz scene, Jozsef Barcza Horvath on bass and Attila Gyarfás on drums. The trio is always in searching for new ways in playing, but they also respect the jazz traditions. They had performed on the Kiev Jazz Festival, Palace of Arts (with Mike Moreno), Hungarian National Opera, and numerous clubs and festivals.

Here are some reviews:

"The album is very diverse in its style and ideas but each track is connected by your singular voice and creativity."

- Jon Cowherd

"In his playing Áron is equally capable of great lyricism and soaring passion."

- Peter Pallai

"While treating classical soils unique to Europe, lyricism full of transparency, phrasing that lightly floats in the air altogether, Traditional swing feeling was successfully interwoven".

- JazzTokyo

Personnel:

Aron Talas - piano, compositions

Jozsef Barcza Horvath - bass

Attila Gyarfas - drums